

Little Locals.

Roy Brooks left for Evansville Indiana, this week.

W. S. Weatherly left Sunday for Puryear.

Renel E. McGill was in Nashville Saturday.

Send The Chronicle the happenings in your community.

We will send The Chronicle and the Nashville Daily Tennessean to any address one year for $3.00.

Eugene Murray, and G. E. McCall of Huntingdon, and T. C. Rye, of Paris, were in town Saturday.

The suit between B. D. Johnson and Fayette Brown last Saturday, resulted in the acquittal of Johnson.

A new lodge of Odd Fellows was organized at Denver Saturday night. Several Odd Fellows from here attended.

W. E. McCullough has moved to the south side of the square next-door to the hardware store and will be glad to see his friends.

FOR SALE.—Full blooded Rhode Island Red eggs, 50 cents per 15. Mrs. Addie Agnew, Camden, Tenn.

We received 21 communications this week and in order to publish as many as possible, have abbreviated them. We are glad to receive the news from all parts of the county.

Joe Moore, 55, widower and well known citizen and merchant at Stiversville, Perry County, committed suicide Saturday by cutting his throat with a small knife. No reason assigned for act.

$80.00 per month straight salary and expenses, to men with rig, to introduce our Poultry Remedies. Don't answer unless you mean business. Eureka Poultry Food Manufacturing Co. (Incorporated) East St. Louis, Ill.

There will be services at the Methodist Church next Sunday. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. Subject, Paul the Seer, or Man of Visions. 7 p. m., preaching by Rev. W. W. Adams. Quarterly meeting Monday.

The Book Lovers Club spent a very pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. O. Hubbs, on Wednesday last. A good attendance of members being present. The time was spent in discussing various topics of literary interest. Light refreshments were served and much enjoyed by all present. The club will meet next with Mrs. Frank Hecker. Subject, "Women of Prominence." Members are to answer roll call by giving name of some women of public interest.

Program for the meeting of the U. D. C. March 2 1911:
Song, "Old Kentucky Home".
Recitation, Miss Helen O'Reilly.
Reading, Miss Vivian Holladay.
Song, "Old Black Joe".
Recitation, Miss Angie Steele.
Reading, Miss Lula Lashlee.

Program for the Woodmen Circle banquet, Friday night Feb. 24 at the Pythian Hall:

Invocation.
Welcome address, Mrs. Will Corbett.

Floor Work by W. C. drill team.
Extemporaneous talks by members of W. O. W.
Lunch served from 7 to 11. Every body cordially invited. Good music a feature of the evening. No admission.

Lost—Saturday February 4, between Camden and Henry Mitchell's on the Coxburg road, one small black purse only one opening containing one five dollar bill and five dollars in silver. Any one finding the same, please return or write to Anna B. Swindell, Camden, Rfd. 5 and receive a reasonable reward.

PROVIES' CHAPEL.

Misses Ella Spence and Mada Cole spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Spence. Bivens Atkins and Miss Benie Sanders attended the box supper last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sanders spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Harris.

Miss Sarah Thomas was the guest of Miss Lela Sanders Saturday night.

Salesman Wanted.

To look after our interest in Benton and adjoining counties. Salary or commission. Address The Harvey Oil Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

Wanted.

Cosmopolitan Magazine requires the services of a representative in Camden to look after subscription renewals and to extend circulation by special methods which have proved unusually successful. Salary and commission. Previous experience desirable but not essential. Whole time or spare time. Address with references, H. C. Campbell, the Cosmopolitan Magazine, 1789 Broadway, New York City.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & Co.,

Toledo, Ohio.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for 15 years and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligation made by his firm.

Walding, K. nuan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.

Sold by druggists, 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

HALLS VALLEY.

Horace Corbitt and Ed Cooley were at Claud Saturday.

John Rainwaters visited T. H. Ball Sunday.

A. J. Melton of Camden has moved his stock of goods to his old residence on Harmons Creek.

Miss Hester Benton and mother of Point Mason, visited relatives in this community one day last week.

T. H. Ball, Tom Chester and Bob Corbitt were in Big Sandy one day last week on business.

Mrs. Trophena Ball is visiting her daughter Mrs. Mary Cole on Sulphur Creek.

We wish to call attention to the splendid line of wire fencing for sale by I. N. Bridges, in another column.

A Cash Offer.

The Chronicle has made a special clubbing rate with The Memphis Weekly Commercial Appeal by which we will furnish both papers for one year for The Chronicle's regular subscription price, $1.00. The Commercial Appeal is one of the largest and best papers in the South, and we hope to receive many new subscriptions on this offer; $1.00 cash for both papers.

J. L. Frazier and wife came over from Camden Tuesday and remained until today with their sons, M. N. and W. A. Frazier. There is improvement in the health of these excellent old people.—Lexington Progress.

OUR job printing facilities are first-class, and our specialty is good work. Estimates and samples where possible will be furnished on application. Address THE CHRONICLE, Camden, Tenn.

GOOD FENCING

32 inches high and 12 inch mesh.

To the Members of the Farmers Union.

The above style of fence is 32 inches high, manufactured from heavy galvanized coil spring wires and weighs 6½ pounds per rod; margin wires No. 9, line wire No. 12, and stay wires No. 13.

PRICE

delivered in car lots, 20 c per rod; also Barbed Wire, 80 rod spool, at $1.60. These prices are ridiculously low for good fencing, and they can't be duplicated by any one else. Make out your orders and send them in at once.

Yours Truly,

I. N. BRIDGES.

CLAUD.

Doin and Claud Farmer were at Big Sandy last Saturday.

Alie Farmer of Big Sandy was here one day last week.

Bud Dillon and son, Ira, were at Big Sandy one day last week.

Charley Belyew moved to Flatwoods one day last week.

Sam Rainwaters left for Bertran, Mo., recently.

Mrs. Ira Dillon is spending a few day with relatives on Sulphur Creek.

John Cole and Bruce Farmer spent Sunday with friends on Harmons Creek.

Mance Wilson of Harmons Creek was here today.

Ed Rainwaters of Sulphur Creek spent Sunday here with homefolks.

Mrs. Trophena Ball is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. John Coll of Sulphur Creek.

On account of the disagreeable weather, Rev. A. E. Wilson failed to fill his appointment at the Valley Sunday.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Charley Cooley of Clydeton was received here last week. We are sorry to learn of her death, as she was a good woman.

PAVATTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb of Johnsonville visited Mrs. J. D. Whitfield Saturday and Sunday.

All reported a good time at the quilting at Misses May and Malta Cox's Friday.

W. S. Cox and W. F. Haynes took a flying trip to Birdsong Monday on business.

Miss May Cox was the guest of Mrs. L. C. Craig Saturday afternoon.

Misses Ada Horner and Allie Craig were the guests of Misses May and Malta Cox Saturday.

HOLLADAY.

James Wilson was in Sugar Tree Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sanders were in Parsons last week on business.

Howell Franks, the brick mason, has returned from Cuba Landing.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox visited Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Odle Saturday.

A fine girl gladdened the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cox last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McIlwain visited the latter's parents the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Emma Hudson of Colorado is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ballinger.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. H. H. H.

ROCK COLLEGE.

D. B. Pollard and family visited Roy Drenden Saturday night.

W. I. Riley and Amos Drenden went to Paducah last week.

J. E. Armstrong is hacking crossties at Johnsonville.

J. C. Craig moved to Coxburg last week.

Put Primm, who has been very ill for some time, is some better we are glad to learn.

J. V. Patton has moved to his new home near Riverhill, the one he purchased of W. A. Henry.

E. D. Hatley who left here a few days ago for Oklahoma, reports no rain there in six months. I would like a place where all is sunshine.

J. W. Capps who has been teaching the Matlock Chapel school returned home last Sunday. Come again, Mr. Capps.

BRECHEN.

Mrs. A. L. Welch visited Mrs. J. W. Byrd Saturday afternoon.

Jim Sterling was in Camden last Friday on important business.

Miss Viola Williford attended the closing of J. W. Capps' school Friday afternoon.

R. B. Peebles of Rockport visited his father Jacob Peebles Saturday.

Mrs. Nannie Ashby and little daughter Bessie visited Misses Margaret and Rachel Peebles Saturday afternoon.

Arch Peebles of Rockport was with us again Friday night and Saturday returning home Saturday afternoon.

James Byrd was on Opossum Creek Friday. The same old gent was heard singing in a much sadder tone, "I wonder if she ever tells him of me."

FREE

THE SOUTHERN FARM ADVOCATE

ONE OF THE BEST AGRICULTURAL PUBLICATIONS IN THE SOUTH.

HERE IS HOW

Send us the regular yearly subscription price of this, your best home paper, and we will send you FREE The Southern Farm Advocate. This paper has made arrangements with The Southern Farm Advocate whereby every paid-in-advance new subscriber or any old subscriber who renews his subscription will have The Southern Farm Advocate sent him without any extra cost. IT'S AN OPPORTUNITY TO GET TWO FOR ONE. The offer is made for a short time only.

Here Is What You Get Free

The Southern Farm Advocate is the great farm paper published at Memphis, Tenn., the central city of the great Mississippi valley, and not far from the center of population of the country.

The Southern Farm Advocate is published every week and consists of sixteen or more pages.

The Southern Farm Advocate is the official paper of the Farmers' Union of Tennessee, and a department is conducted for this organization ably edited and conducted by T. J. Brooks, former secretary of the union.

A whole page is devoted to the discussion of live stock every issue. Prof. C. L. Baker edits a department devoted to poultry.

Prof. C. H. Lane, of the University of Tennessee, edits the department on agriculture.

Dr. Charles B. Banks edits a department of veterinary.

Other famous writers and specialists conduct departments on apiculture, dairying, and all branches of subjects concerning the farm and plantation.

The Southern Farm Advocate also conducts a woman's department, where hundreds of helpful hints for better housekeeping and economy are to be found.

Besides all this there is a concise review of the news of the week and an editorial page second to none in the country.

It prints no liquor advertising. The Southern Farm Advocate also publishes pictures of blooded stock of its subscribers FREE when there is shown to be superior merit in the stock.

AND ALL THIS FREE WITH THE SUBSCRIPTION TO YOUR HOME PAPER.

DO IT NOW

If you are not now a subscriber to either your home paper or The Southern Farm Advocate, this is your chance to get two for the price of one.

If your subscription to this paper is nearly out, you may renew it at the regular price and also have a year's subscription to the splendid farm paper without additional cost.

Here is Our Offer---$1.50 for Only $1.00

The Camden Chronicle $1.00

Southern Farm Advocate, .50

Our price for the two - - $1.00